

Post 16 Literature Learning Journey

In Literature we seek to promote a love of the reading and how literature can inform our understanding of the world and how it shapes who we are as humans. We aim to engage our students through a range of genres, giving them the confidence to explore, critique and understand the world of literature.

English Literature is a highly respected A level. As well as an English Literature degree itself, students of Literature might go on to study for University degrees in a range of subjects including: History, Sociology, Psychology, Drama, Theatre Studies and Law.

English is good for any job that involves communication, writing and / or literary knowledge. These include: advertising and marketing, writing and journalism, law, consultancy, business, teaching, performing arts, academia, government, linguistics, foreign languages, media and design. You could even be a freelance writer, which we think is one of the world's best jobs!

Careers in the sciences, engineering, technology and maths also need more English than you think. Writing proposals, academic papers & articles and communicating with others is key to getting funding for projects and reaching people with your work.
